Bangalore,
23rd January 1902.

To

LT.-COLONEL PERCY.H.BENSON M.B. I.M.S.,
Senior Surgeon and Sanitary Commissioner
with the Government of Mysore,
Bangalore.

The humble Petition of Amirthammall, widow of the late T.Arnachellam Pillai, Manager of the Office of the Senior Surgeon & Sanitary Commissioner with the Government of Mysore, residing at 141, Seppings Road, Civil and Military Station, Bangalore.

Most Respectfully Sheweth,

Petitioner's husband, the late T.Arnachellam Pillai abovesaid, served the Mysore Government for 23 years, 6 months and 24 days from the 15th April 1877 to the 7th November 1900. A copy of his testimonials is appended hereto.

II. He had been supporting a large family, and his death left it without provision. His daughter for want of means continues yet unmarried.

III. It is admitted that during the long term of his service, he had onerous duties to perform, and that he per-formed them under trying circumstances and to the entire satis-faction of his superiors. His Office was short-handed, while work was developing largely; he had only 5 hands, and with them he as Manager coped with the entire Administrative work of the Province in the Medical Branch. He never absented himself, but was always at his post; and had to work very hard, so much so that he had not sufficient time even for meals. As a result of long, continued over-exertion his health at last broke down completely, and he died.

IV. His life was thus sacrificed purely to duty, and this brought on misery and suffering on the whole of his household.

V. Petitioner therefore humbly prays that in consideration of the service of very nearly 24 years rendered by her husband, the late T.Arnachellam Pillai abovesaid, and of the hard circumstances of the case now represented, you may be graciously pleased to get some adequate bonus paid to her as a provision for the remainder of life for herself and the family, and for the celebration of the marriage of the daughter abovesaid. And petitioner respectfully submits that there are many precedents in which mercy was exercised in the manner now sought.

For this act of kindness, Petitioner shall, as in duty bound, ever pray.

Petitioner begs to remain,
Your most obedient servant,

My dear Dr. MASSY,

Your note of yesterday which I have been unable to answer till this morning.

The clerk ARNACHELLUM about whom you made enquiries has been at work in my Office for about a year and a half or more, nearer three years, during which time I have never had cause to find fault with him; he is intelligent, good at his work, and a good accountant, as he has been principally employed on Estimates which work he has done well.

I shall be sorry to lose him, but on the other hand would be very glad to help him to a better place. I know his relations they are very respectable people, and one of his brothers is my head Native Clerk.

I hope you will be able to employ ARNACHELLUM.

March 27, 1874.

YOURS SINCERELY
W. OSBORN.

ARNACHELLUM has been a Clerk in my Office a little more than two years. He is a civil man and attentive to his work and seems a painstaking Clerk.

He writes a good hand and Copies letters and Reports with accuracy. He has been always well conducted.

I give him this testimonial as I am leaving India

H. H. MASSY M. D.

I have much pleasure in bearing testimony to the highly satisfactory way in which Mr.T.Arnachellam Pillai discharged the duties as Manager of the Senior Surgeon's Office during the time I acted for Dr.McGann in his absence at Ootacamund.

From the opportunities which I have had of judging of his work I consider him to be throughly well up in it and I can only say that it is a pleasure to find a man in his position so in-telligent and respectful and I shall be always very pleased to hear of his advancement.
